Hanscom Family Housing Named PHMA 2012 US Air Force's Outstanding Team-Privatized Location Award Winner

EL PASO, TX – The Professional Housing Management Association (PHMA) recently announced its selection of Hanscom Family Housing as the winner of the 2012 Air Force Outstanding Team-Privatized Location Award winner. Hanscom Family Housing, located on Hanscom Air Force Base in Bedford, Massachusetts, is one of four bases included in the Falcon Group military housing privatization project. The property was developed and is currently managed by the military housing division of Hunt Companies, Inc. “It is my pleasure on behalf of the Professional Housing Management Association (PHMA), to offer you my very sincere congratulations on your team's selection” said Del Eulberg, Major General, USAF (Ret). This award will be officially announced in PHMA's Defense Communities magazine and on phma.com. “We are very excited to be the recipient of this award as it represents our commitment to ensuring the very highest level of quality of service to our Airmen,” said Debra Cash, Director of Operations for Hanscom. “We are extremely pleased PHMA is recognizing Hanscom Family Housing for this award,” Robin Vaughn, Co-President of Hunt's Public Private Partnership division said. “It is always our intent to provide the highest and best level of satisfaction for the families living and working on our military properties.” More information about the community can be found online at <http://www.hanscomfamilyhousing.com>.
