Kathy Parry Honored With 2011 Pat Cox Award

El Paso, TX – (December 15, 2011) – Hunt Companies, Inc. is proud to announce that Kathy Parry, Director of Builder Relations, is the recipient of the 2011 Pat Cox Award by the El Paso Association of Builders (EPAB). Kathy received her award at the EPAB installation and awards banquet. The Pat Cox Award is a prestigious EPAB award given to those who have demonstrated extreme volunteerism and extraordinary association involvement. Parry, who also received the EPAB's Top Gun Member Award in 2004 and was President of the EPAB Women's Council in 2006, has been a member of the association for 20 years. "It is an honor to win this award" said Parry, who has been with Hunt for nine years. "It is also an honor to belong to an organization with so many wonderful people and dedicated volunteers. I have been able to serve the community while serving this organization and appreciate the opportunity to make a difference." "This award is the highest Association Award and in Kathy's case, it was a long time coming," said Ray Adaauto, Executive Vice President of the El Paso Association of Builders. "It is rare to have a member who devotes what little spare time they have to us and Kathy has, throughout her career, made a significant contribution and attended every event. Her commitment is commendable and valued."
